Hi!

My name is Frode welcome to my web page.

I've been told that people looking for Jemtland Verksteder incidentally drop into this site. If so click the link instead, or change from com to no in the url.

So over to what the rest of you are here for ;)

This site will be dedicated to what interests me the most. I'm look at my self as a person that gets really committed into the things I'm interested of. Thees days that would be family, work and general life, but I used to have some kind of hobbies, and those took up a loth of time ;)

So on this side, I'll present cool things I have dropped into up through the last couple of years, that has cough my attention.
